PAYETTEVILLE.

Beard hall was filled to overflowing Friday vening to witness the graduating exercises of the Payetteville union school. Five of the best young people of the village received their sheepakina and did themselves great credit in their orations and essays. At the ciose of the exercises Martin A. Knapp, of Syraouse was introduced and delivered the finest address of its kind ever heard in Fayetteville. He spoke of the errors of our present education, saying that "onlinge bred men are not the world's men." He referred to the achievements of the past and pointed our the unoccupied fields for the man of to-day. "The fantasies of restorday are becoming the probabilities of to-day and will be the possibilities of to-morrow." The hour was late when Mr. Knapp began his address, yet be held to the end the undivided attention of the large andience. His thoughts were new and vigorously presented. Miss Armstrong sang in fine votce Robandi's Romanza. Mr. Control Becker of Syracuse, who is a great favorite here with all lovers of music, gave in his usual pleasing manner a violin solo, The Mezart ginh gave with the effect two selections from Vogel.

ONEIDA.

Oneida Opera House was crowded Friday evening to witness the commencement exercires of the high school. The opera house was tastefully decorated with many floral designs. On one and of the stage was a telescope which was made by members of the satrogomy class. Prayer was offered by Rev. O. E. Mogg, after which Koeld & Perhine's orchestra of Utica planed a selection. The following were the graduates: Harry C. Etone, Martha C. Carter, Edith P. Loomis, Karl B. Quackenbush. "The Influence of the Printing Press," an essay by Edith P. Loomis, was well written and forcibly delivered. A recitation, "Brief Hose," by Edith A. Loomis was exceedingly well rendered winning the Northrup prize in recitation. "Lendership," the ovation by Earl B. Quackenbush showed fine ability. Martha C. Carter's cosay, "William Hamilton Gibson and his Stetches of Nature," was excellent. Miss Carter is a very thorough student, "Idole," a declamation by Geo. W. Noyes, a grandaou of the founder of Oneida community, won great applause and the Chappell prize in declaration. "The Effects of War," an ovation by Harry O. Stone was delivered in a very spirited and easy manner. He is a close student. Martha C. Carrer won the first print of the Bewick scholarship and Harry O. Stone the second. Prof Januares spoke feelingly and well to the graduates at the close of their exercises.

CANASTOTA.

The firmer's convention in this village was a grand success. Early Thursday morning people came pouring into town from every direction and by all kinds of converances. The hose companies, entered for the hose race, led by the Capazzota cornet band, marched to the base ball grounds where the running was to occur. The first ran was made by Warner boss at the Streeter malt house by the comradue of feet of home coupling onto the bydrant, abcour ling the home and coupling on the norrie, in 54% seconds; D-Laus bose, Capactota, naxe in 52 2 5 seconds; Fountain hose, Bamilton, next in 52 2-5 seconds; Forbes hove, Canastota, next in 4914 seconda; Burroughs hose, Morrisville, last in 50 3-5 seconds. The tie between DeLans hose and Fourtain hose was decided by the cartains of the respective teams running over the course when Fountain hose won, placing DeLans hose fourth. The prize drill occurred at 2:30, only two ormpanies participating, Chappel hose and German hose, both of Ogeida. They were both very finely appearing companies of men and well drilled. Chappel made $9 points out of a possible 100 and German hose 78. The parade occurred at 3 o'clock and fifteen companies and six bands participated, rearly 500 men being in line. The fire works were a grand avecess. The game of ball between the Binghamtons and Opeldas was won by the Binghamtone by a score of 7 to 3 in seven iunings. The business places and most of the private dwellings along the line of march were very elaborately decorated, among the latter being those of Milton De Tano, Rov. E. A. Tuttle, Barney Austerman, W. T. Northrup, E. H. Rose, James L. Eddy, and others. The work of moving the West Shore passenger depot has been commenced, and the building is nearly ready to move. The ticket, talegraph and express offices will be located in the West Shore traight house until the new Union depot is ready for occupancy.

The Thomson Houston electric lighting apparatus will be continued in use for a time, and it is thought it will be permanently adopted. than H. Chesley and family of Utica, spent Banday with friends in this village. Royal Sweet returned last Friday from Cazenovia where he graduated with honors. Dr. M. B. Jarvis in having his large bouse on Park river re-painted. Mosher & Evans are doing the work.

The primary and intermediate departments of Capactota Union school are compelled to contipue two weeks longer on account of being olcard two weeks last winter during the diphtheria epidemic.

The change of time on the West Shore railroad given Canastota an additional train going chat at 8:47 A. M. and west at 3:30 P. M. Canastota firemen will participate in the fourth of July colemnation at Cuittenaugo.

Parker's Concert company will give one of their reduced concerts in the M. E. church Wednesday evening. The West Shore passenger station is being got ready to move to a point between the tracks

when it will be converted into a Union depot for the Central, West Shore, Elmira, Cortland & Northern, and Canastota Northern roads. Bylvester A. Wheeler was arrested Saturday morning charged with selling liquor without a House, The case was adjourned ten days for the purpose of allowing the defendant to make an application to the County Judge to have the case presented to the grand jury. ALL IN A PARAGRAPE.

MARCELLUS. - The tuberal of Mrs. James Axion, who died quite enddonly on Thursday of paralysis of the heart, was held at the house Baturday afternoon. The services were impressive, Rev. A. Desper, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, for disobeying his orders. There will be a strawberry social at the residence of Hiram Clark on Thursday evening, Jone 30, under the directions of the Ladies Aid society. Mr. Benson, who meently purchased the Gilbert Harel property, would like to dispose of it and would do so at a ressonable figure. What a glorious scheme it would be for some of our enterprising townsmen to purchase and remodel the hotel building into a graded school. There is no first-class subpol within fifteen miles and the Summit is situated on the relirond and amid a well populated and prosperous district of country there is no reason why a school of this kind would not pay.
